I love you without knowing how,
Or when, or from where.
I love you simply,
without problems or pride:
I love you in this way because I do not know any other way of loving but this,
in which there is no I or you,
so intimate that your hand upon my chest is my hand, so intimate then when I fall asleep your eyes close.

LOVE YOU

THE BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE IS NOT ALWAYS SEEN FROM THE VERY BEGINNING
BUT RATHER AS LOVE GROWS AND DEVELOPS OVER TIME.

A MARRIAGE IS NOT A NOUN; IT'S A VERB.
IT ISN'T SOMETHING YOU GET. IT'S THE WAY YOU LOVE YOUR PARTNER EVERYDAY.
