"By the mercy of Allah, two paths have met and two hearts have been joined in the sacred bond of Nikah. Today is not just a celebration of love, but a promise to stand together in faith, to forgive often, to speak gently, and to remember Allah in every season of life. May this marriage be a refuge of peace, a garden of compassion, and a means for both of you to grow closer to your Lord with every passing day."

Muslim Wedding

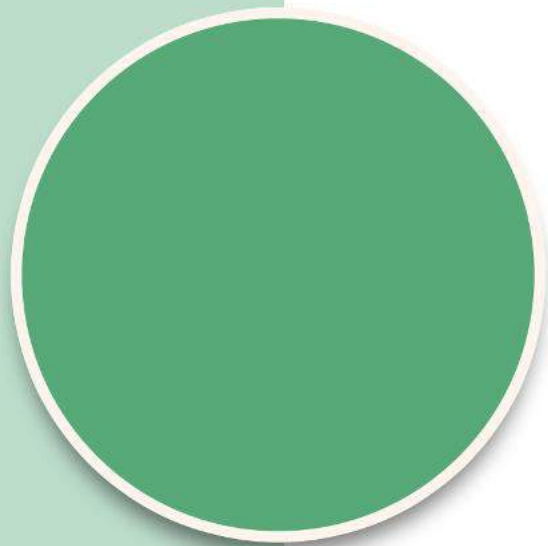

"May your Nikah be a doorway to Allah's mercy, where two hearts learn to walk as one soul towards Jannah. May every smile you share become a silent dua, every hardship you face become a reason to hold each other tighter, and every day you live together be written as an act of worship in His sight. May Allah fill your home with Qur'an, your hearts with sabr, and your journey with barakah in this world and the next."
