The haldi ceremony is a pre-wedding ritual that is an essential part of Indian wedding traditions. It is usually performed a few days before the wedding. The bride and groom are adorned with turmeric paste (haldi) and flowers. The ceremony is a joyful occasion where friends and family members participate in applying the haldi to the bride and groom. It is a time for celebration and good wishes for the couple.

You don't love someone because they're perfect, you love them in spite of the fact that they're not.
